MARK THIS DATE!!! Sunday, July 28, our worship time will change to 1:00 p.m., Sunday afternoon, so that we can be led in worship by the Restoration Community Church (RCC) congregation. The church is led by Congolese Pastor Banza Mukalay, who is ordained in the African Methodist Church, and lived in a refugee camp for 13 years in Tanzania. This congregation of 150-200 people is composed of mostly African refugees who have settled in the Grand Rapids area. They worship at Wesley Park United Methodist Church in Wyoming. Last fall several of our church attended worship with RCC and there began a friendship that we hope to cultivate in the future. This service is one way we can show our communion in Christ and learn more about the African culture as we expand our horizons as a local church.

There will be one worship service on July 28, at 1:00 p.m. A meal will follow in the fellowship hall. Watch for more details as the date approaches. Get ready for an inspiring, moving worship experience in the African tradition!

Silent Auction!

Hazel Palmer has donated a collection of diverse artwork that she would like us to have for the purpose of fundraising for any purpose we wish. The artwork will be on a rotating display in Sanctuary during the month of July and in August they will all be displayed for auction. More details will come in July. The Church Council will be discussing the use of the funds raised.

Spoke Folk – A unique opportunity will be presented at CSUMC on July 22 by a traveling worship group that celebrates at a new church each day and performs a program of Christian music and testimonies. Mark your calendar to enjoy an evening out with good music and worship. Details will be coming soon.
